

SBC Scholarship and Business-Startup Program (S&BSP)

Through ongoing generous donations, SBC is making some monies available to students, entrepreneurs, and tradesmen on a yearly basis through an application process. See information below.

- The SBC S&BSP will make some monies available for the following:
 - Students seeking higher education.
 - Individuals learning a craft or a trade.
 - Entrepreneurs seeking start up seed monies.
 - Individuals seeking certifications in various fields.
- SBC S&BSP Evaluation Process
 - SBC Elders will designate individuals responsible for evaluating SBC S&BSP applications (i.e. S&BSP Evaluation Board).
 - Applications and evaluations will occur basically twice a year.
 - Primary evaluations and awards will occur in July of each year in preparation for the fall school year. This means applications need to be turned in by the end of June each year.
 - Applications for the Spring semesters will also be accepted and evaluated in the fall (applications in by November and evaluations complete by December).
 - The S&BSP Evaluation Board will award monies to applicants based on fund availability and priority ranking of assessed needs.
 - The SBC S&BSP Evaluation Board will interview recent recipients of monies on a yearly basis to assess progress and effectiveness of the program.
- The SBC S&BSP Evaluation Board will evaluate application requests using the following criteria:
 - Individuals must be members of SBC.
 - Applicants preferred age range is 16-24 years old (though other ages will be considered)
 - Applicants will submit a written essay explaining their vision, plan, need for the monies.
 - Applicants will submit at least two letters of recommendations pertaining to character and abilities.
 - Applicants will submit a detailed account of expected costs and monies requested.

Note: It is recommended that applicants be enrolled in or have gone through the the SBC Discipleship programs (e.g. the Shepherds program and Homemakers(?) program)

(Applicants can use the following link to apply online: (insert form link))
- SBC S&BSP Financial Management
 - SBC will hold all S&BSP funds in a designated account.
 - Monies for the S&BSP will appear as a line item in the general SBC budget.
 - Unused funds will roll-over into the next year (so the account can accrue funds).
 - Individuals can donate to the S&BSP funds by designating their particular giving amount.
 - The initial deposit amount for 2026 is $15,000.
